Sam Puckett's 24 Most Savage Moments

on iCarly ...

Sam Pink I think it comes from a general feeling that I've had since I was younger that everything is confused and cluttered, and the only comfortable way forward is untangling it by letting it present itself, without charged interference from my/other minds. I've found that letting people be who they are, without changing who you are, leads to genuine change and interaction.

Bing: Person Sam Pink

Person is a novel by my favorite weirdo Sam Pink. The novel is about an ordinary person. He could be you. He could be me. We go page by page living the every day life of the person. That's pretty much it. We observe the person's daily routine and the utter banality intertwines it. We explore his psyche in the most in depth and personal way possible.

Books by Sam Pink (Author of Person) - Goodreads

I feel like Person by Sam Pink, published by Lazy Fascist Press, is, as Ann Beattie said of Wittgenstein's Mistress, "a novel that can be parsed like a sentence.". What I mean is the sentences, one per paragraph one by one, slowly present an image of existence—particular, funny, sad, moving, and sometimes surprising.
